KPI with Performance Management

Manage for Improvements

Programme Synopsis

Performance Management is a human resource management tool used to evaluate, document and discuss employees' past performance and in turn administer the appropriate rewards or punishment. Effective performance management adds value to your organization. It motivates your top employees to do even better and it tells under-performers exactly what is expected and how to improve. In this regard, Managers and Supervisors must be equipped with the necessary understanding and skills to facilitate and conduct a seamless and fruitful performance management review and goal setting exercise.

Programme Objectives

At the end of the workshop, participants will learn:

- The framework and principles of Total Performance Management
- How to rate staff objectively and the importance of fairness and consistency
- Interpersonal skills needed to conduct face-to-face review meeting
- How to deal with underperformers and the use of Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)
- How to discuss and set SMART KPIs with employees for the next plan

Programme Outline

The workshop content is as follows:

1. Overview of Performance Management Process
2. The Different Stages of Performance Management
3. How to conduct a fruitful Performance Review Meeting
4. Performance Planning and Agreement

Methodology

To anchor the learning and winning behaviour, the workshop incorporates:

- Interactive lectures/group activities
- Applicable industry examples
- Role play

Participant will practice face-to-face review meeting at the workshop

Line Managers, Executives and Supervisors who have a shared responsibility in management of employees and entry-level HR professionals.

Testimonials

"Its an informative session for employee who needs to know HR best practices."

Edmond Tan (Cleaning Industry)

"Training provides a good, clear picture of HR Management, especially for a Non-HR Personnel. Legal frameworks shared are great eye-openers. Thank you."

Agnes Lim (Aircraft Industry)

"Kudos to the trainer! I attended all 3 of the HR courses & at first was worried that material would overlap, which will waste time/money. However, my "fears" were unfounded! All content was different & parts that overlap were pertinent points that helped me reinforce my previous learning. Use of videos were very good tools. Enjoyed tremendously & strongly recommend to all HR/Non HR staff/boss."
